

Who Are Your First Responders?

A number of different police and fire agencies are responsible for providing service to communities throughout Orange County. Listed below are Orange County cities and unincorporated areas, the agencies that respond to calls for help from these cities and areas, and the nonemergency contact numbers and websites for these responding agencies.

For a police, fire, or medical emergency, always dial 911. No matter where you are, the dispatcher will route your call to the correct agency. To report a property crime where danger is not present and there is no immediate opportunity to catch the suspect, call the nonemergency number listed for your area.
